

What an absolute delight with amazing ensemble acting! Many thanks for bringing thoughtful and great theater to Tucson audiences.

—Laura Kosakowsky, Season Subscriber

A devastatingly beautiful performance this evening.

of our 18th season

Thank you for the hope and gift of theatre which lets us see ourselves in such dimensionality.

—Lindy M. Elias, Audience Member

I can't recall ever enjoying a Shakespeare comedy as much as I so enjoyed your performance of Twelfth Night. What a marvelous evening! To think that such a large cast was uniformly fabulous. My students were enthralled as well. Enthralled!

2022–2023 Season of Plays

Memories & Follies

Great literature.
Challenging ideas.
Intimate setting.

THE 2022–2023 SEASON

SWEAT

by Lynn Nottage

September 8–25, 2022

Sponsored by Andy Watson

In an eastern Pennsylvania bar, we see American factory workers vulnerable to economic changes, racial confrontations, and a rapidly diversifying population. Winner of the 2017 Pulitzer Prize for Drama.

GREAT EXPECTATIONS

by Charles Dickens

adapted to the stage by Jo Clifford

November 3–20, 2022

Sponsored by Marianne Leedy

A tight and focused rendering of Dickens' sprawling, coming of age novel. The adaptation brings to the stage the novel's greatest virtue, its characters: Pip, Miss Havisham, Estella, Joe, Jaggers, and many others.

Babette's Feast

by Isak Dinesen

adapted to the stage by Rose Courtney

January 12–29, 2023

Sponsored by Barbara Martinsons & Larry Boutis

Based on the short story about two Norwegian sisters who take in a French refugee maid and cook, Babette. Eventually, there are revelations and redemptions through Babette's generosity and artistry. Known for the 1987 Oscar-winning Danish film.

THE SEAFARER

by Conor McPherson

March 2–19, 2023

Sponsored by Max McCauslin & John Smith

An alcoholic drying out and living with his blind brother reluctantly hosts a Christmas Eve gathering with friends which carries into the next day. He confronts a promise made decades before to an ambiguous figure with supernatural echoes.

A Midsummer Night's Dream

by William Shakespeare

April 27–May 14, 2023

Sponsored by John Wahl & Mary Lou Forier

Two pairs of lovers are caught between the feuding gods and fairies of Nature, while a team of mechanicals stage a play for the Duke. Fanciful, magical, hilarious.
